“May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be Loved Everywhere.”

Matthew 19:14 Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

At the end of Jesus Christ earthly ministry, Jesus said: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age” (Mt 28:19-20). By teaching the next generation about the Good News, you are fulfilling your part of the Great Commandment. This the most important thing we will ever do.

We find God’s will in the Scriptures, particularly in the commandments by this would lead us to take decisions in easy manner. Hearing the voice of God and receiving guidance from Lord Jesus is as simple as opening the Scriptures. There is no substitute for investing faith in children when they are still young.

Psalm 14:1 “The fool has said in his heart, there is no God.”
BUT we are all wise to believe in God.
